THE COLLISION ON THE OHIO.

Distressing Incidents.

From the Louisville Courier-Journal, Dec. 7.

A FRANTIC APPEAL.

A touching appeal was made by Miss Jones to a gentleman on board. As the woodwork was becoming too heated to bear, and the flames were forcing their way gradually into the cabin, she went to him saying, "Oh, Mr. ——, you have talked to me this evening, you have danced with me, you know who I am and where I come from; save me! Oh, save me! Oh, save me!" He told her he had a wife to save, and could not help her. Poor girl, she is beyond earthly help now.

THE STRUGGLE FOR LIFE.

One of the gentlemen on board had the presence of mind to unhinge a door, which he threw into the river; and, after his wife and he had jumped in, he placed her in position to reach the shore. Now stay here, dear," was his request, "until I can fix myself some way, and we can both be saved." Imagine the husband's agony, just as he had procured something that would float, to see a man swim toward the frail support of his wife and knock her away from it. She was drowned.

A LIFE BOAT CRUSHED.

A lady on board the States relates that as she and her husband were moving toward the shore, in the water, she saw one of the life boats filled with people who had escaped. But all at once the America begins backing toward shore, and mercilessly the rude rudder strikes the boat, crushing and upsetting it. None of those passengers were saved; after escaping one danger, only to meet death in another form.

THE PANIC.

From the shore could be seen women with nothing but their robes de nuit to protect them, rushing about in the flames, screaming for help; mothers, with their children in their arms, wives, babies, rushing about frantically.

MOTHER AND CHILD.

One mother, holding her baby in her arms, ran to the guards, but the water seemed to her only a chilly grave; then she jumped in the cabin again, then to the guards. The last that was seen of her she was standing up with her baby hugged close to her, in her awful death, burning up.

THE BRIDAL PARTIES.

The bridal parties on board lost everything but their sleeping apparel. Calico took the place of elegant vestments. Red worsted hoods or bonnets, or any thing that would cover their feet and make dress. Clothing was gone, elegant trous-eaux, which had cost so much time and trouble in getting together, were lapped up in the angry flames. Money was gone, and penniless utterly naked, three of the newly married couples changed their warm beds for the icy water in the river; half dead with fright and two-thirds frozen, they only reached the friendly shore to be greeted by a piercing cool wind.

MEN AND WOMEN—A FEARFUL SCENE.

A gentleman with his sister, a lovely and accomplished young lady, were passengers on the United States. At the first shock, the gentleman was thrown from his bed clear on the floor. Hastily pulling on his pantaloons, he rushed to the state room of his sister, burst open the door, and seizing her in his arms, carried her down on the main deck—where procuring a door shutter he threw it overboard and leaped after it with his sister in his arms. He placed her securely on the shutter, and was swimming behind, pushing it, with its precious load, toward the shore, when, to his horror, a big, burly, and able-bodied man swam up, pushed his sister off the board, and climbed upon it himself.

The young girl sank with a scream, and if she came to the surface it was so dark and the confusion so great that he could not find her. Maddened at the dastardly act, he made after the author, and seizing him by the throat a struggle to the death ensued. They rose and sank together, still struggling, and when last seen were grappling with each other. Whether either was saved or both went down together is not known. The sister sank beneath the waves and was lost, but she was terribly avenged by her brother.

A MELANCHOLY CASE.

Mrs. Mary Griffin and her friend Mrs. Commodore Thompson, who were placed upon the United States at Cincinnati by Mrs. Townsend Whelan, of Philadelphia, perished in the conflagration. The first named lady was the wife of Mr. Geo. W. Griffin, of the firm of Griffin & Porch, New Orleans. She had been on a pleasure visit to Philadelphia for the first time since her marriage. Mr. Griffin being at Columbus, Mississippi, on business, addressed a letter to his wife, in care of the Louisville Hotel, where she expected to stop, requesting her to meet him at Columbus. When Mr. Griffin read the first news of the disaster, although his wife's name was not mentioned in the dispatches, and he did not know that she had taken passage on the States, he immediately started for this city.

It having been learned at the hotel that Mrs. Griffin was lost, the letter to her address was opened, the whereabouts of Mr. Griffin ascertained, and a telegram sent apprising him of the loss of his wife. He arrived at the hotel only a few minutes after the dispatch had started. More hopeful than despairing, he asked the clerk if Mrs. Griffin was there. On receiving the melancholy answer that she was lost, Mr. Griffin melted into tears, and was too deeply grieved to stir. He was helped into the hotel office, where he sat upon a sofa and gave vent to the most painful anguish. As soon as he had composed himself sufficiently he wended his way to the steamer Buell, and thence to Warsaw, in search of all that remains of his young and beloved wife.

ELECTRICITY AS A REMEDY FOR OPIUM POISONING.

On the subject of poisoning by opium, the Journal des Connaissances Medicales has an interesting article, from which it would appear that electricity is a powerful remedy in such cases. In 1846, the London Medical Gazette published the case of a woman who had, at a single draught, swallowed 30 gms. of laudanum, and who, notwithstanding the emetics speedily applied, sank into a profound lethargy, from which neither coffee, nor ammonia, nor cold water poured on her head, could rouse her. She had been in this condition for more than three hours when her medical attendants thought of electricity. One of the poles of a strong electro-magnetic apparatus was applied to the forehead, and the other to the upper part of the vertebral column. Immediately after the first shocks the state of coma in which the patient lay began to give way; she made efforts to remove the conducting wires, and by the end of half an hour consciousness had completely returned.

Some time afterwards a second instance of the same nature occurred, and Dr. Van Holsbeck mentioned a third in his "Compendium of Medical Electricity," being that of a child poisoned by opium, and whose respiration was for several hours maintained by Dr. Baird by means of a galvanic battery, so that the patient at length recovered. A fourth instance is now recorded by Dr. Yram, of a woman, subject to strong neuralgic pains, who had made a provision of pills of extract of opium containing five centigr. each. One day, under the influence of violent sorrow, she swallowed ten or twelve of them. Not long after her face became pale, her eyes got fixed, the pupils were contracted and insensible to light, her pulse was low, her breathing laborious, and her state in general one of complete unconsciousness. Two grains of tartar emetic were administered, then coffee, and lastly a tannin draught, but without success. This had been going on for several hours, when at length Dr. Yram, on being consulted, applied electricity, and with such success that within a quarter of an hour the patient recovered so far as to be out of danger, but for several days after she remained in a state of idiocy.

A Most Wonderful and Successful Invention!
NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.
THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.
Awarded the highest Testimonial wherever Exhibited.
Rev. M. W. STAPLES, Inventor and Patentee.
THIS BOILER is self-acting, and dispenses entirely with labor and the wear of clothes. The hot suds and steam by the action of fire, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing it perfectly without any rubbing. It has been thoroughly tested, and pronounced unequalled as a Clothes Washer, by those who have used it.
All fabrics, from the finest laces to the bed-blanket can be washed perfectly and with ease and without the aid of the rubbing-board. For Flannels it is invaluable, as the rubbing, rolling and pressing process must necessarily full them more or less.
It is truly a labor and clothes saving invention. Washing will no longer be a hardship, and washing day no longer a terror and a dread to housewives
The invention can be used in any boiler, and the low price of the article places it within the reach of every family.
The saving in the wear of clothes will soon pay for the outlay.
It is estimated that 200 to 300 gallons of boiled suds pass through the clothes in thirty minutes; this being the longest time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes.
Hundreds of these Boilers are being sold each week giving perfect satisfaction.
Every Boiler sold guaranteed to do all we claim, or money refunded.
Can be seen in full operation at Longee & Brother's.
We are selling COUNTY RIGHTS rapidly.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1868.

THE STATE PENITENTIARY.

Will the action of the Committee, under the law passed by the Legislature at its last session, stand? Ought it to stand? The people of North Carolina, almost with one voice, say, IT MUST NOT STAND.

The bill, as passed, liberally construed, perhaps, may justify the action of the Committee, but, from the various statements of members of the General Assembly, it is palpable that very few understood the Committee to be authorized to make a bona fide purchase at any point, much less the purchase of lands not needed for the Penitentiary directly. No judicious, wise Committee would have exercised such powers, even if they were given, involving such a large expenditure. Why, if it was expected that this Committee should do more than select the site, did the Legislature require a report of its action at the next session,—if it, the General Assembly, did not consider itself at liberty to accept or reject the action of the Committee? It is plain that this was the understanding. The course taken by the authorities is highly censurable.—The selection of the Committee for such high responsibility was both ridiculous and criminal. Not more than one or two of them were at all competent for the position. The whole action, is the passage of the bill, the appointment of the Committee and in what the Committee did, looks strongly as if a Ring controlled the business. The people of the State, if the Committee's action is sustained, must be cheated out of several hundred thousand dollars.

Many blame the persons who sold the property to the Committee. There is no good ground for this, unless it can be shown that the Committee was deceived or suborned, and we have no evidence of this. People, who choose to do so, can ask what they please for their property, and if the Legislature will act so blindly as to commit matters of great responsibility and risk to incompetent men, the State is the sufferer, and the Legislature, alone, is to blame.

The site selected for the Penitentiary is an ineligible one. There is no building material near it. The 8,000 acres of land bought by the Committee lie ten or fifteen miles below Lockville, on Deep River. Before the rock can be removed from the quarry to the site, one or more locks must be built and a steamer purchased, at a cost of at least $100,000, to get it to Lockville. Most of the 8,000 acres of land, which, with the site, is to cost the State $100,000, was bought, we are told, recently, for 60 cents per acre. The State could have easily bought it for that, twelve months ago. Now it pays nearly $12 per acre, if the action of the Committee stands. Several better sites near the city of Raleigh could have been bought, with the rock at hand, for less than one tenth the sum. The people of Johnston were willing to give the State a site at Selma, on the Rail Road. All these facts were known to the Committee, and yet, with the poverty of our people on every side staring them in the face, this reckless, incompetent Committee assumed the responsibility of involving the State in a heavy debt. People of North Carolina! Will you sustain these reckless men? It is time you had spoken out. People of all parties, white and colored, should, in primary meetings, check this waste, extravagance, profligacy, and ruin. It is not too late to arrest it. It must be done, OR STARVATION, RUIN AND REPUDIATION MUST COME!

P. S. It will be seen that the Senate, on yesterday, very properly adopted a resolution declaring that the Committee had transcended their authority in contracting for the purchase of the 8,000 acres of land, and directing the Public Treasurer to withhold the bonds agreed to be paid therefor. The resolution goes to the House for concurrence. But what if the bonds have already been issued, delivered and this bargain closed? What then? There is still a way, we judge, of undoing this unauthorized and outrageous proceeding.

CHATHAM RAILROAD.—The opinion of B. F. Moore, Esq., of this City, having been required upon the question, whether the Act of the General Assembly of August 15, 1868, chap. 14, which proposes to loan to the "Chatham Railroad Company" the credit of the State for $2,000,000, in order to enable "said Company to finish their Railroad," is constitutional, he has submitted a strong and able argument to the effect that the bonds proposed to be issued under the Act of August 15, 1868, if issued, would be in palpable violation of the Constitution.

THE RAILROAD BILLS.—The House manifested a proper decency, on yesterday, in postponing the consideration of the Railroad appropriations, which have already passed the Senate, to the second Monday in January. Mr. Durham, Mr. Malone, Mr. Pou, and others, deserve the thanks of the people of the State for resisting the attempt to rush them through under the pressure of the infamous gag-rule. The sneers at Mr. Pou, made by the carpet-baggers and others, do not hurt that gentleman, we imagine. They are like the gun, which does all its injury at the breech—

"Bears wide and kicks the owner over."

OFFICIAL VOTE OF TENNESSEE.—We learn from Nashville that the official vote of Tennessee, in the late Presidential election, was as follows: Grant, 55,104; Seymour, 26,200—majority for Grant, 28,904. Four counties report no election.

Legislature of North Carolina.

SENATE.

EVENING SESSION.

WEDNESDAY, Dec, 14, 1868.

Mr. Welker introduced a resolution, instructing the Committee on the sale of the State's interest in Railroads, Navigation and Turnpike Companies, &c., to confer with the Governor, and ascertain if he has had any proposals made to him upon that subject, and the nature of them. Adopted

CALENDAR.

The Bill to amend the Charter of the Oxford branch of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad Company, came up on its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Osborne, it was amended, so that the Company is required to pay its interest as soon as it becomes due; and the bill passed its third reading—26 to 9.

On motion of A. H. Galloway, colored, the bill authorizing the Commissioners of New Hanover, Robeson, Union, Anson, Rutherford Wake, Granville, Halifax, Cumberland and Pasquotank, to issue bonds, was taken up.

On motion of Mr. Osborne, it was so amended as to submit the subject to a vote of the people of the several Counties, and the bill passed its third reading.

Mr. Cook moved to reconsider the vote, by which the bill to amend the Charter of the Oxford branch of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad passed.

J. H. Hyman, colored, moved to lay that motion on the table; which prevailed.

An act to repeal an act, entitled an act to amend an ordinance of the Convention, entitled an Ordinance to incorporate the North Western North Carolina Railroad Company:

Mr. Wilson offered a substitute for the same; which was rejected, and the bill passed its third reading.

On motion of Mr. Barrow, the rules were suspended, and the resolution relating to the Committee on the Penitentiary was taken up, and discussed at length.

Messrs. Barrow, Robbins, Welker and Love held that the Committee had transcended their powers, or, at least, had violated the spirit of the bill, in purchasing the 8,000 acres of land.

Messrs. Osborne and Cook sustained the Committee, and held that the General Assembly were alone responsible.

Mr. Lassiter spoke at length and gave all the facts in his possession in reference to the purchase. It had been represented to the Committee that there was an abundance of iron ore of a superior quality on the 8,000 acre tract—with a sufficient amount of wood to have a smelting furnace for twenty years, with an immense water power, and the site for the Penitentiary, all for $66 000.

Mr. Barrow desired to know how he made it that amount.

Mr. Lassiter said that our bonds were worth 65 at the time, and the owners of the property had agreed to take 100,000 at our bonds at par.

Mr. Love desired to know who were the original owners of the property, and what it sold for before the Committee purchased it.

Mr. Harrington said the land belonged to Dr. McKay, and he had heard that a Northern Company had purchased it for 65 cents per acre. The Committee purchased it from Col. Heck & Co.

Pending the further consideration of the matter, on motion of Mr. Barrow, the Senate adjourned until to morrow, 11 o'clock.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

NIGHT SESSION.

MONDAY, Dec. 14, 1868.

House called to order at 7 o'clock.

A message was recived from the Senate, informing the House of the passage of House bill No. 160, to amend the Charter of the town of Fayetteville, with an amendment making it apply to all towns in the State.

J. S. Leary, colored, moved that the House concur in the amendment.

Mr. Sinclair said this bill, as it stood, would prohibit men, who owned property and paid taxes, but who did not live within the corporate limits of the town, from voting.

J. S. Leary, colored, said that he had no disposition to disfranchise any one, but he thought there should be an actual residence. The Senate adopted this amendment to make the provisions of the bill apply to all other towns in the State, in order to get rid of a multiplicity of bills of a similar character.

Mr. Vest favored the amendment.

The question on the motion to concur was put and carried.

A message was received from the Senate, informing the House of the passage of Senate bill No. 55, to re enact and confirm certain acts of the General Assembly, issuing bonds to and for Railroad Companies.

On motion, ordered to be printed and referred to the Judiciary Committee.

By Mr. Estes: A joint resolution authorizing the joint Committee on Investigation to employ a clerk at a compensation not to exceed $2 per day.

Mr. Estes moved to suspend the rules and adopt.

The motion was put and lost, and the resolution took its place on the Calendar.

On motion of Mr. Laflin, the unfinished business of the morning was taken up, when the question recurred upon Mr. Seymour's motion to postpone certain railroad bills until the 5th day of January next.

After a debate of some length, the further consideration of the motion was postponed until to-morrow morning, 11 o'clock.

During the debate on the question to postpone,

Mr. Durham said that he did not know that he would oppose a single one of these bills, if time were given him to consider them carefully. But he would oppose, by every means in his power, this rushing these bills through under whip and spur, upon which depended over $12,000,000 of the people's money. He observed an evident disposition to plunder the treasury of the State, and he would not sit idly by and not raise his voice in protesting against it. He would call the attention of the gentlemen to the fact that these three or four bills called for an issue, on the part of the State, of over $12,000,000 of bonds,—thus imposing on the people a direct tax of over $720,000, &c.

After some further unimportant business, the House, on motion of Mr. Seymour, adjourned until to-morrow A. M., at the usual hour.

SENATE.

TUESDAY, Dec. 15, 1868.

The Senate was called to order at 11 o'clock—Lt. Gov. Caldwell in the Chair.

A communication was received from the Code Commission, covering a bill to create a Mechanics' and Labourers' Lien; which was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary, and ordered to be printed,

A message was received from the House, transmitting sundry bills, &c.; which were disposed of as follows, to wit:

Bill to renew the Charter of the Richmond Manufacturing Company; referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Bill to repeal an act providing for furnishing the Governor's Mansion. (Provided that this act shall not interfere with the expenditures already made.)

Bill to amend section 473, chapter 10, Code of Civil Procedure; referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

Bill to amend the Charter of the City of Wilmington; referred to the Committee on Corporations.

Resolution asking a Committee of Conference in reference to a bill relating to punishments; which was adopted and the Chair appointed, as the Senate branch of the Committee, Messrs. Winstead and Osborne.

Bill authorizing the Public Treasurer to supply a temporary deficiency in the Treasury; referred to the Committee on Finance.

THIRD READING OF BILLS.

Bill to amend the Charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee and Ohio Railroad Company:

Mr. Lassiter offered an amendment to the second section, striking out "for twenty-four months," in the 18th. and 19th. lines; which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. McLaughlin, the following additional section was adopted, to wit:

"That an act amending the Charter of the Atlantic, Tennessee & Ohio Railroad Company, ratified on the 19th. day of August, 1868, is hereby repealed."

And the bill passed by a vote of 27 ayes to 17 nays.

Mr. Respass moved to reconsider the vote, and Mr. Cook moved to lay the motion on the table; which was carried.

Bill to provide for the appointment of Entry-takers:

On motion of Mr. Blythe, it was so amended as to legalize all former entries, and passed unanimously.

UNFINISHED BUSINESS.

Resolution declaring that the Committee on the Penitentiary transcended their power in purchasing the 8,000 acres of land, and instructing the Public Treasurer to withhold the bonds to complete the sale:

Mr. Osborne said that the only question was whether the Committee had the power, under the bill, to make the purchase of the 8,000 acres. He was of the opinion that they did. I confess, Mr. President, (he said) that I was surprised when I heard that the Committee had made this purchase. I thought it was a stretch of their powers, and that they must have had great inducements to have made the venture. If I had been on the Committee, I should have advised a different course, but the purchase is made and this is a question in which private rights are involved, and it should be considered maturely and investigated thoroughly. I regret that the purchase has been made, and no one regrets more than I do, that the phraseology of the bill will even admit of debate. Yet, sir, I am clearly of the opinion that the Committee were sustained in their action by the provisions of the bill I do not think this question should be considered hastily, and therefore, move that it be referred to a special Committee, with the power to investigate it thoroughly; and, should it turn out that this Committee of honorable gentlemen have been defrauded by misrepresentation, I will vote for any measure declaring the purchase null and void.

Mr. Lassiter approved of the course designated by the Senator from Mecklenburg, and hoped his suggestions would be adopted.

Mr. Welker said there was one difficulty in his mind in relation to this reference. When matters of this character are referred to committees, unfortunately there is nothing more heard from them; unless there is some clause requiring the Committee to report at some specified time, I shall vote against it.

Mr. Lindsay said he was opposed to the reference. He thought that action should be had at once to forestall the sale of those bonds. A Committee had had this subject under investigation, and yet none of them could say that this purchase had any coal, iron, or granite on it, and he could not see what good could be accomplished by this reference.

Messrs. Barrow, Graham, Robbins, and Sweet, opposed the reference, in speeches of some length, and Messrs. Burns and Lassiter favored it.

The Senate refused to refer, by the following vote:

AYES.—Messrs. Burns, Blythe, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Eppes, colored, Galloway, colored, Jones, of Wake, Lassiter, Moore, of Yancey, Osborne and Rich—12.

NAYS.—Messrs. Barrow, Barnes, Beasley, Beeman, Bellamy, Brogden, Colgrove, Etheridge, Graham, Harrington, Legg, Lindsay, Long, Love, Mason, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret, McLaughlin, Purdie, Richardson, Robbins, Scott, Shoffner, Smith, Sweet, Welker, White and Wilson—28.

The resolution then passed its final reading, as follows:

AYES.—Mess. Barrow, Barnes, Beasley, Beeman, Bellamy, Brogden, Etheridge, Graham, Harrington, Legg, Lindsay, Long, Love, Mason, Melchor, Moore, of Carteret, Moore, of Yancey, McLaughlin, Purdie, Respass, Robbins, Scott, Shoffner, Smith, Stephens, Welker White and Wilson—28.

NAYS.—Mess Barnes, Blythe, Colgrove, Cook, Davis, Eaves, Epps, (colored) Galloway, (colored) Martindale, Osborne, Rich and Richardson.

On motion of Mr. Welker, the resolution proposing to raise a Committee to investigate the affairs of the Bank of the State and of the Cape Fear Bank was taken up and passed its several readings.

On motion, the Senate adjourned until to-night, at 7½ o'clock,

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

TUESDAY, Dec. , 1868.

House called to order at 10 o'clock.

Prayer by the Rev. Mr. Shaw, of the House.

Leaves of absence were granted Messrs. Hoffman, Gunter, and Williams, Sampson.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES.

Mr. Laflin, from the Committeon Internal Improvements, reported favorably upon the bill to separate the Eastern and Western divisions of the Wilmington, Charlotte and Rutherford R. R.

The bill was ordered to be read, and during the reading,

Mr. Pou arose to a point of order, saying that the hour for the special order (viz: the consideration of the report of the Internal Improvement Committee, offered yesterday, on several Railroad bills,) had arrived. He then moved to indefinitely postpone the special order, and, on that motion, took the floor. He thought that it was highly important to the interests of the State, that these bills should be fully and fully discussed in their several readings.

Mr. Pou continued for some time to argue against the unconstitutional manner in which the General Assembly hi already issued, and were now trying to issue bonds, with such a lavish hand. The people did not intend to pay them, and the capitalists, who were hawking themabout the markets and stretching out thir greedy hands to grasp others, had betterake warning. They might call this repudiation, or not, just as they pleased, but it would tell them that the people did not intend to be crushed under an enormous loa of taxation.

He would inform the House hat, unless they took warning, in less than ur years the bonds of the State would notbuy a bag of guano. He was not opposed totailroads but he did object to the mean ways which some wanted to make the State riponsible for them. Mr. P continued in opposition to these appropriations, saying it was a system of piling up enormous debts for the people to pay in taxes. He was opposed upon principle to building up Rroads by taxation. In many instances, it ook from one man to build up another. He did not oppose lending the credit of the State to build up a road under constructin, but he would be first sure to have such security as would prevent one portion of the people from being grievously oppressed by taxation in building that road, in order to bolster up another. He believed that the course of the Legislature would result ultimately in the State's becoming utterly bankrupt, if he did not feel sur that the people would repudiate the tremendous source of taxation.

Mr. P. had been speaking for some time, when,

Mr. Downing arose to a poi of order, saying he had set under the idiction for some time, until he had reache his fourteenthly or fifteenthly, but he ow insisted that the gentleman should confine himself to the subject under discussion

The Chair sustained Mr. Pou and he continued in the same strain, when

Mr. Downing again arose to a point of a similar character.

The Chair again sustained Mr. Pou, and Mr. Downing appealed from the decision.

On the appeal, John Williamson (colored) called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained, when Mr. Downing consented to withdraw the point.

John Williamson, colored, contended that it could not be withdrawn, as the yeas and nays had been ordered.

The Speaker decided otherwie, when,

John Williamson appealed from that decision, and called for the yeas aid nays

The call was not sustained and the decision of the chair was sustained.

Mr. Pou continued his remarks and contrasted the manner in which it was proposed to aid the various Railroad schemes now under consideration. He believed that gentlemen, who intended to vote for these bills, never expected to represent the people again on this floor. The identical party now in the ascendancy, and which controlled this House, would never again do so. Gentlemen knew it and felt it.

Mr. Estes next occupied the floor in reply to Mr. Pou, taking issue with him on several points in regard to the amount of taxation arising from the issie of bonds to Railroads, &c., &c.

Mr. Laflin said he arose not to reply to the arguments of Mr. Pou, but simply to congratulate him upon the safe delivery of his speech, and he (Laflin) hoped the delivery had not been so painful to him (Mr. Pou) as it evidently had been to the majority of the House. Mr. Laflin then proceeded to advocate the immediate passage of the bills, &c., and concluded by moving to take up the bill amending the Charter of the Tarboro and Williamston Railroad, and on that motion called the previous question!

Mr. Seymour arose to a point of order, and said that, on yesterday, the gentleman from Pitt, (Mr. Laflin,) moved to suspend the rules and take up these bills; after some debate the matter was postponed until to day, at 11½ o'clock, and the question was taken on that basis this morning, when Mr. Pou moved to ind finitely postpone; and, therefore, Mr. Laflin could not cal up a bill until these motions were decided

The Chair sustained the point of order.

Mr. Bowman moved to amend the motion by postponing until the second Monday in January, and Mr. Pou accepted the amendment.

Mr. Seymour hoped the motion to postpone would prevail, and that all the bills would be printed and the members could take them home and then get the views of their constituents. He did not think they should be asked to rush bills through the House, increasing the debt of the State some $14,000,000, without examination. He understood that there were three bills amending the Charter of the North Carolina Railroad going to be introduced. Now he did not like to vote on them by piece-meal; he wanted an opportunity to examine the whole plan.

Mr. Durham said he was opposed to pushing these bills in one batch, under the gag of the previous question, through the House. If other gentlemen would allow each bill, as it came from the calendar, to be fully and fairly discussed, though he preferred a postponement, yet he would not insist upon the postponement. If proper time were allowed, he should vote for some of the bills; one of them carried a Railroad by his own town—but if the attempt was made to rush through an omnibus bill, involving the State to the extent of some 12 or 14 millions, he would resist it to the bitter end.

Mr. Bowman said he was a friend to these measures, but he wished each to be thoroughly discussed, and to stand or fall on its merits. He, therefore, insisted on his motion to postpone until the second Monday in January next, and called the previous question. He withdrew it, however, at the request of Mr. Malone, with the understanding that he might renew it.

Mr. Malone said that the postponement of these measures is proper for many considerations. The object of these various bills is to build up a huge system of Railroads in the State. The discussion of these questions involves the most important, difficult legal questions, as well as questions of policy, and yet under a suspension of the rules we are required to rush blindly and madly into an expenditure unknown before to the history of the State. Why this haste? Will not the merit of these propositions insure their passage? Hast, this is a strong argument against the measures. Let us have every single proposition before the House, and we may finally be able to add greatly to the onward course of North Carolina.

Mr. French moved to adjourn.

Mr. Bowman arose to a point of order, saying that he had yielded the floor to Mr. Malone, with the understanding that he should have the floor to renew the motion for the previous question.

The Chair sustained the point, when, Mr. B. renewed the motion, and the motion prevailed.

Mr. French called for the yeas and nays.

The call was sustained and resulted, yeas 61, nays 38.

Those who voted in the negative were: Messrs. Ames, Argo, Barnett, Candler, Carey, colored, Davidson, Ellington, Estes, Forkner, colored, Foster, French Gahegan, Graham, Gunter, Harris, of Wake, colored, Hayes, colored, Hodgings, Laflin, Mayo, colored, Moring, Morris, colored, Pearson, Peck, Price, colored, Proctor, Ransom, Robbins, colored, Robinson, Reynolds, colored, Short, Sinclair, Simmons, Sykes, colored, Welch, White, Williamson, colored, Gatling and Wiswall—38.

Mr. Justice, of Rutherford, moved to reconsider the vote.

Mr. Durham moved to lay it on the table.

J. H. Harris, of Wake, (colored) moved to adjourn. On motion, the yeas and nays were called and had, resulting in a vote of yeas 40, nays 65.

The question recurred upon Mr. Durham's motion to lay the motion to re-consider on the table.

On motion, the yeas and nays were ordered, and resulted in a vote of yeas 61, nays 39.

Mr. Welker presented the report of the Commissioners of Mecklenburg county. Referred.

A message was received from the Senate, transmitting several bills, asking the concurrence of the House. The bills were placed on the calendar and will be noticed when they come up

Also a message, assenting to the Committee of Conference on the bill to amend an act in relation to punishments

After the introduction of one or two unimportant resolutions, the House then adjourned until 7½ o'clock this evening.

The growth of the Ætna has never been equaled by any other Company whatsoever, in Europe or America.

Particular attention is called to the fact that while its business is increasing unprecedentedly, its ratio of expenses is comparatively small.

ECONOMY of management, CARE in the selection of risks, promptness in the payment of death claims, and security in the investment of its immense Trust Funds, are rigidly adhered to, and have ever characterized this Company.

The ÆTNA issues all the favorite kinds of Policies at the most favorable rates.

The ÆTNA issued last year more Endowment Insurances than any other Company.

The ÆTNA'S ratio of expenses, or cost of new business is less than any other Company whatsoever, and less than two-thirds of the average.

Non-forfeiting cash rates with dividends on contribution plan and payable at the end of the first year.

Second—Endowment Policies, for terms of ten, fifteen, twenty, twenty-five, thirty, and thirty-five years.

PREMIUMS.

Premiums are payable annually during the continuance of the insurance, or annually during a period of five, ten, fifteen, or twenty years within the insurance term, or by single payment.

DIVIDENDS.

All Whole Life and Endowment Policies, issued at the rates published herewith, will participate in the surplus from the date of issue.

The dividends will be declared and paid annually upon the contribution plan, and may be applied as the assured shall elect, either to reduce future premiums, or to increase the Cash Value of the Policy.

If no election be made the dividends will be added to the Cash Values.

When, by adding the dividends to the Cash Value, the accumulations on any Policy shall have become sufficient to keep the same in force for its full amount, without further payments, the assured may, at his option, either continue payment of premiums—and enlarge thereby the annual additions to its Cash Value—or discontinue them; and in either case, when the accumulations shall have become equal to the sum insured, the annual dividends on the Policy will be declared as a per centage of said sum, and paid in cash, and upon surrender of said Policy the sum insured thereby will be paid in full, without regard to the time fixed therein for its payment.

The system of applying the dividends is peculiarly advantageous to the assured, securing, at an increased age, not only relief from further payment of premiums, but, at the same time, an annual income until death, unless he shall have previously received full payment of the Policy.

Dividends on paid-up Policies—that is, Policies which require no further payment of premium to continue them in force for the original amount of insurance—will be paid in cash upon demand.

Non-Forfeiture Rules.

No Whole Life or Endowment Policy, on which two or more annual cash premiums have been paid, shall be forfeited by failure to make further payment as stipulated therein but will continue in force for the full amount which the Cash Value and dividends, then accumulated, will purchase—taken as a single net premium, upon the "Actuaries" rate of mortality and four per cent. interest; and the amount continued in force will generally exceed the aggregate of the payments actually made, extra charges excepted.

MISCELLANEOUS.

To the People of the Southern States.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3, 1868.

When the pure medicinal restorative, now so widely known as Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, was introduced into the world under the endorsement of four thousand leading members of the medical profession some 20 years ago, its proprietor was well aware that it could not wholly escape the penalty attached to all new and useful preparations. He, therefore, endeavored to invest it with strongest possible safeguard against counterfeiters, and to render all attempts to imitate it difficult and dangerous. It was submitted to distinguished chemists for analysis, and pronounced by them the purest spirit ever manufactured. Its purity and properties having been thus ascertained, samples of the article were forwarded to ten thousand physicians, including all the leading practitioners in the United States, for purposes of experiment. A circular, requesting a trial of the preparation and a report of the result, accompanied each specimen. Four thousand of the most eminent medical men in the Union promptly responded. Their opinions of the article were unanimously favorable, such a preparation, they said, had long been wanted by the profession, as no remedy could be placed on the ordinary figure of commerce, all of which were more or less adulterated, and therefore unfit for medical purposes. The peculiar excellence and strength of the oil of juniper, which formed one of the principal ingredients of the schnapps, together with an unalloyed character of the aromatic ointment, give it, in the estimation of the faculty, a marked superiority over every other diffusive stimulant as a diuretic, tonic and restorative.

These satisfactory credentials from professional men of the highest rank were published in a condensed form, and enclosed with each bottle of the schnapps, as one of the guarantees of its genuineness. Other precautions against fraud were also adopted; a patent was obtained for the article, the label was copyrighted, a fac simile of the proprietor's autograph signature was attached to each label and cover, his name and that of the preparation were embossed on the bottles, and the corks were sealed with his private seal. No article had ever been sold in this country under the name of schnapps prior to the introduction of Wolfe's Schiedam schnapps, in 1851; and the label was deposited, as his fac simile mark, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York during that year.

It might be supposed by persons unacquainted with the daring character of the pirates who prey upon the reputation of honorable merchants by vending deleterious trash under their name, that the protections so carefully thrown around these scnapps would have precluded the introduction and sale of counterfeits. They were, however only to have stimulated the rapacity of impostors. The trade mark of the proprietor has been stolen; the indorsement whom his Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps alone received from the medical profession has been claimed by mendacious hucksters; his labels and bottles have been imitated, his advertisements paraphrased, his circulars copied, and worse than all, dishonorable retailers, after disposing of the genuine contents of his bottles, have filled them up with common gin, the most deleterious of all liquors, and thus made his name and brand a cover for poison.

The public, the medical profession and the sick for whom the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps is prescribed as a remedy, are equally interested with the proprietor in the detection and suppression of these nefarious practices. The genuine article, manufactured at the establishment of the undersigned, in Schiedam, Holland, is distilled from a barley of the finest quality, and flavored with an essential extract of the berry of the Italian juniper, of unequaled purity. By a process unknown in the preparation of any other liquor, it is freed from every acrimonious and corrosive element.

Complaints have been received from the leading physicians and families in the Southern States of the sale of cheap imitations of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps in those markets; and travellers, who are in the habit of using it as an antidote to the baneful influence of unwholesome river water, testify that cheap gin, put up in Schiedam bottles, is frequently palmed off upon the unwary. The agents of the undersigned have been requested to institute inquiries on the subject, and to forward to him the names of such parties as they may ascertain to be engaged in the atrocious system of deception. In consequence, the undersigned would say, that he has produced, from under the hands of the most distinguished men of science in America, proofs unanswerable of the purity and medicinal excellence of the Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps; that he has expended many thousand dollars in surrounding it with guarantees and safeguards, which he designed should protect the public and himself against fraudulent imitations; that he has shown it to be the only liquor in the world that can be uniformly depended upon as unadulterated; that he has challenged investigation, analysis, comparison, and experiment in all its forms; and from every ordeal the preparation which bears his name, seal and trademark, has come off triumphant. He therefore feels it a duty he owes to his fellow-citizens generally, to the medical profession and the sick, to denounce and to expose the charlatans who counterfeit these evidences of identity and he calls upon the press and the public to aid him in his efforts to remedy so great an evil.

The following letters and certificates from the leading physicians and chemists of the city will prove to the reader that all goods sold by the undersigned are as they are represented to be.

UDOLPHO WOLFE.

I feel bound to say, that I regard your Schnapps as being in every respect pre-eminently pure, and deserving of medical patronage. At all events, it is the purest possible article of Holland Gin, heretofore unobtainable, and, as such, may be safely prescribed by physicians.

DAVID L. MOTT, M. D.,
Pharmaceutical Chemist, New York.

---

26 PINE STREET, NEW YORK, Nov 21, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have made a chemical examination of a sample of your Schiedam Schnapps, with the intent of determining if any foreign or injurious substance had been added to the simple distilled spirits.

The examination has resulted in the conclusion that the sample contained no poisonous or harmful admixture. I have been unable to discover any trace of the obstetric substances which are employed in the adulteration of liquors. I would not hesitate to use myself or to recommend to others, for medical purposes, the Schiedam Schnapps as an excellent and unobjectionable variety of Gin.

Very respectfully yours,
(Signed,) CHAS. A. SEELY, Chemist.

NEW YORK 53 CEDAR STREET, November 26, 1867.

UDOLPHO WOLFE, Esq., Present:

DEAR SIR:—I have submitted to chemical analysis two bottles of "Schiedam Schnapps," which I took from a fresh package in your bonded warehouse and find, as before, that the spirituous liquor is free from injurious ingredients or falsification: that it has the marks of being aged and not recently prepared by mechanical admixture of alcohol and aromatics.

Respectfully,
FRED. F. MAYER,

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1868.

DESTRUCTIVE CONFLAGRATION.—Just after our paper went to press, on yesterday morning, between one and two o'clock, the community was startled by the alarm of fire. Immediately, hundreds were attracted to the scene of alarm, led by the glaring illumination which lit up the skies, when it was found that the Restaurant of David Weis, Esq., corner of Fayetteville Street and Market Square, and the adjoining store of T. V. Moss, Esq., Watchmaker and Jeweler, were wrapped in flames. We have not been able to learn, satisfactorily, the precise origin of the fire, though it is generally supposed to have originated in the kitchen attached to the Restaurant.—The flames made such impetuous and irresistible progress, that all the efforts of our gallant firemen, with their insufficient apparatus, were powerless to check them, and they soon communicated to the wooden cupola of the Market House, leaping, like hissing fiery serpents, far up into the night air and spreading their hideous glare far and wide. All three buildings were soon consumed, and nothing now remains but smoking ashes and desolate walls. It was only by earnest, unremitting and daring effort, on the part of the firemen and citizens, that the fire was prevented from spreading up Fayetteville and towards Wilmington Streets. The firemen deserve all praise, and, above all, deserve, and should at once have, the best and most effective apparatus.

Mr. Moss, we are apprehensive, lost heavily, in the destruction and injury of his valuable stock. This gentleman has once before been burned out, and once suffered the spoliation and loss of his entire stock, in Hampton, Va., when that place was occupied by the Federal troops. He has the sympathies of all our people, among whom he is deservedly popular. An enterprising and excellent citizen, we trust that he may be speedily "on his feet" again and in the full success of business.

Mr. Lewis' loss is also severe and it falls upon as clever and worthy a man as can be found anywhere.

In the Hall above the Market were stored the press, type and other materials belonging to the old Register office, and which were advertised for sale. The destruction was well-nigh complete.

The loss of the City, of course, is heavy—the Market, though small, being a neat and substantial one, answering its purposes very well. The town-clock and bell,—these two old institutions which were associated with many of the incidents of our City history, for years,—are, of course, among the things that were.

We do not know the amount of insurance on the property destroyed. If anything, it was small.

RT. REV. JAMES GIBBONS, Bishop of Wilmington, will preach in the Catholic Church, in this City, this (Wednesday) night, at 7 o'clock.

THE LADIES AND GENTLEMEN IN MINIATURE.—Remember the lenses and entertainments, by the Lilliputians, in Tucker Hall, to-day. Gen. Tom Thumb and his petite suite will be on hand to please and interest the good people of the City of Oaks. Do not fail to pay them a visit.

The little carriage, containing the wee party, drove through our streets, yesterday afternoon, to the great delight of the juveniles and the admiration of everybody.

E. J. HALE, SR., formerly of the Fayetteville Observer, is on a visit to his old home. He will be greeted warmly and cordially wherever he may go in the State. Few men have more friends, and no man deserves to have more. Upright, generous and true, E. J. Hale is a model North Carolina gentleman.

THE Publishers of that admirable magazine, The Galaxy, Messrs. Sheldon & Co., New York, and his English publishers, give Charles Reade fifty thousand dollars for a new serial story, the first chapters of which will appear in the January number of the Galaxy. This magazine, by the way, publishes a very attractive prospectus for 1869. It has a very able corps of contributors, a fact which is probably owing to the liberal manner in which it pays for all the articles which appear in its columns.

SANTA CLAUS IS COMING! Yes, and for the sake of the dear little ones, we are right glad of it. We envy not the man, whose heart does not glow within him, and who does not revive the pleasant recollections of his own youth, in view of the delight of children at the coming of this beautiful and genial Christian festival. Heaven bless them! We would that Santa Claus were rich enough to make them all, this Xmas, happy and proud with unusual largess.

But Santa Claus will do his best, we are sure, to please the children. He is going to A. D. Royster's, Fayetteville Street, (and "Ark" is very popular with the little ones,) and buy "heaps of things" to make them glad. We advise "Santa" to read his advertisement.

A CARD.

Messrs. T. H. Sebly and J. D. and Wm. Primrose beg leave, thus, to make their acknowledgments to their fellow-citizens, both white and colored, for their untiring efforts, by which their property was preserved from the ravages of fire, on Monday night last.

MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS.

The bill which has just passed the two Houses of the Legislature, regulating the qualifications of voters in our municipal elections, is one of the greatest outrages yet perpetrated by this Radical Legislature, in the interests of Africa. Heretofore, in all such elections, persons owning property in a town or city, which was subject to taxation, have been allowed a vote, on the strength of such taxable property, even though they may not have resided in the corporate limits. This was, manifestly, both proper and just. Heretofore, also, a residence of at least thirty days was required to constitute such an identification with the interests of the community as to allow a person to vote.

But the iniquitous bill in question does away with both of these wise features. It debars a man from voting, whatever the amount of property he may own inside of the corporate limits, if he lives a foot beyond them, and requires only ten days' residence in a voter.

The object is apparent. It is to disfranchise the men whose property is at the mercy of ignorant and vicious officials, and to negroize and Radicalize the local governments, by the colonization, ten days before an election, of negro voters in the respective towns and cities.

And so we go. There is no help. Again we say, Heaven help North Carolina!

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We desire to call attention to the advertisement of W. H. Crow, Esq., General Agent of the Ætna Life Insurance Company, and, especially, to the non-forfeiting feature so lucidly explained. The advertisement clearly sets forth the leading features of this popular and flourishing institution, and the public cannot fail to be impressed with the exhibit of its operations and advantages. Without troubling the reader with a recapitulation of details, to day, we ask every man interested in this great matter of Life Insurance (and who is not?) to study them for himself. Mr Crow, ever accommodating, polite and thoroughly acquainted with the whole subject, will take pleasure in giving all necessary information.

We may mention here that the Ætna, during the present year now drawing rapidly to a close, has issued nearly 13,000 policies, and paid more losses in this State, it is stated, than all other Companies doing business in North Carolina combined.

As the end of the year approaches,—monitory, as the season is, of the end of life,—it brings forcibly to the mind the necessity of making provision for one's family and dependents, in case of death. And, certainly, looking at the flattering inducements presented by the Ætna, we know of no better Company in which to insure.—More anon.

THE AUTOMATIC CLOTHES WASHER.—We are assured that we are doing our friends service in calling their attention to this great and wonderful labor-saving and economical Washing Boiler. The day for rubbing and wearing out clothes, by the old fashioned way, is fast growing into disrepute, and no one, after trying the Boiler, will be willing to have their garments worn out by the old rubbing process.

In this Boiler not only is there a great saving of time, but a greater saving of the clothes. The wash tub is completely thrown aside, so far as rubbing and manual labor are required. To our Legislators, who are on the eve of spending the Christmas holydays with their families, we know of nothing, in household affairs, that they could take home to please their good wives better than one of these Boilers. Wash day, we know, is a blue day in all families—one that is dreaded more than any other. Try the Boiler if you want all pleasant days at home.

Call at Lougee and Brother's, and see it, where it is always in operation.

COLORED SOLDIER SHOT.—A colored soldier, named Lewis Thompson, was instantly killed, on yesterday morning, at the camp near this city, under the following circumstances:

It seems that Thompson relieved another colored soldier, named Wm. King, on guard duty. King, instead of leaving, however, lingered about the post, when Thompson directed him to stand off his beat. King still lingering, Thompson sought to thrust him aside, when an altercation ensued, in which Thompson's bayonet happened to scratch King on the forehead. The latter, very much exasperated, at once fitted a cartridge to his breech-loading weapon and shot Thompson dead.

The murderer was at once arrested, and will be tried, of course, by Court-Martial.

"Every statesman has his fool."

Standard.

As no one recognizes Gov. Holden as a "statesman" but "J. B.," (the little fellow that shook hands with Gov. Vance and said it made him feel like a gentleman,) and his "Co.," and Parson Pepper, and the rest of the invisible Editorial corps of the Standard, it follows that "foo's" must be abundant on Forgett St. Q. E. D.

LARGE SALE OF PROPERTY.—Mr. A. G. Eubank, acting for Messrs. Morehead and Smith, executors of the late Col. Peter G. Evans, sold Wednesday, the following property, lying in this county:

The Gaston place situated about seven miles from the city and containing 5,000 acres, said to be one of the finest tracts in this whole section, was sold to Mr. Manning, of Pittsboro, for about $7,600.

The Long Lake place ten miles from the city, containing, 3,700 acres, was bought by the same gentleman for $1,700.

The tract of land containing 566 acres on which is situated the delectable place known as James City, was next disposed of, Mr. Manning being the purchaser at $6,166.

One hundred shares of A. & N. C. R. R. stock closed the sale, the shares averaging $7.65.

This property was among the most valuable in this vicinity before the war, and the astonishingly low prices at which it was sold, is a most striking evidence of the depression and poverty of our people. The same property before the war would have brought five times the amount it did at this sale.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

RUNNING COMMENTS ON THE NEWS OF THE DAY.

The New York Herald comments, with grim humor, on the following passage in the annual message of President Johnson:

"I am satisfied that the time has arrived when even so direct a proceeding as a proposition for an annexation of the two republics of the island of St. Domingo would not only receive the consent of the people interested, but would also give satisfaction to all other foreign nations."

The Herald thinks that this is a heavy joke, on the part of our Executive. The Radicals have had such a dose of African blacking, that their opposers now wish to surfeit them to the point of re-action. To annex St. Domingo is to add to our troubles, and increase our population by half a million of negroes, fully educated to revolutionary turmoil. They would make an excellent element for the carpet-baggers to work upon. Puritan missionaries will find an excellent field for labor in the correction of Voodooism and Fetichism.

The Committee on Elections give Menard, the negro Congressman from Louisiana, only indifferent encouragement as to the prospect of his being admitted. His treatment by the Radical Congressmen has sunk deeply into his soul,—especially the contemptuous manner in which his Radical colleagues from Louisiana, elected by colored votes, have acted towards him, since his arrival in Washington. He intimates, now, that the carpet baggers are a set of unblushing scoundrels, and says that the colored people are fast coming to the same conclusion.

A well-supported report obtains in Washington that the reference of the bill apportioning arms to Southern "Governors," wherewith to equip negro militia, means the quiet shelving of the proposition for good; and moreover, that the President elect is not averse to such a disposition of the measure. The carpet-bag Congressmen are incensed greatly at the disposal of the bill. Dewerse, who has been put on the Militia Committee, as a recognition of his humming services, is, doubtless, especially horrified. We will soon have leisure to reflect upon his indictment, by the Federal Court, of the abuse of his franking privilege.

There are now one hundred and fifty-nine convicts in the State Penitentiary of Virginia, sentenced since the adoption of the 14th. Amendment, who may be released by habeas corpus and turned loose on the community, under the recent decision of that profligate scoundrel, Underwood. Unless Gen. Stoneman interposes his authority, Underwood will convert Virginia into a Pandemonium.

The New York Tribune says that in Van Dieman's Land, "the most notorious criminals occupy the highest places in the government; trickery and fraud are matters of merit, and crime finds a secure asylum."—There are other countries rapidly approaching the status of this Pacific exemplar. We are rapidly tending to the condition described by Addison, in his Cato:

"When vice prevails and impious men bear sway,
The post of honor is the private station!"

A clever French writer has anticipated a time to come when the madmen will get into the majority, vote themselves into thrones and principalities and powers, and lock up the sane minority of the race in asylums. He might more confidently have predicted the time, when thieves and swindlers will get into power, and exclude honest men and patriots. The world would, in that event, have had some reason to congratulate him upon the speedy verification of his prophecy.

Judge Moses, of South Carolina, having had his disabilities removed by Congress, has gone home to enter upon the discharge of his duties as Chief Justice elect of the State. Is this the same "Moses," who, in December, 1860, visited Raleigh, as the Commissioner of South Carolina, after that State had seceded, to urge co-operation on the part of this State, and to lead North Carolina into the "promised land" of Southern independence! We presume that he is the same man, and that he is now a good Radical,—for he has had "his disabilities removed." We suggest that Holden and Cantwell be sent "over the border" to congratulate Judge Moses!

A special dispatch, dated the 11th inst., says the militia, in Arkansas, under General Upham, continued to seize property and arrest citizens. A large number of citizens are handed together for the purpose of attacking the militia, and are reported to be marching on Augusta. General Upham declares that if he is attacked he will shoot all prisoners now in his hands and burn the town. A committee of citizens and the police have gone to meet the advancing party, and beseech them not to attack the militia, for the sake of the women and children. The greatest excitement and consternation prevail and business is entirely suspended. And this is Radical reconstruction!

The disorderly conduct of members of the National House of Representatives, the present session, is the subject of general comment by the letter-writers. The scene is represented as resembling that of a large, noisy bar-room, more than the chief Legislature of the nation. Sometimes it is impossible for members to hear their colleagues, sitting but a few seats from them, though they scream at the top of their voices. Speaker Colfax, who has heretofore prided himself upon his ability and success as a presiding officer, seems to have lost control of the House, and allows members to do about as they please. And such are the fruits of Radical mobocracy!

FATAL AFFRAY.—At a late hour last night we learn that two negroes, Chas. Crawford and George Brown, became involved in a dispute over a game of cards, when Brown struck Crawford a heavy blow over the head, whether with or without a weapon we did not hear. Crawford was immediately carried home, but did not live longer than five minutes after his arrival there. The officers were put on the track of Brown, but with what success we did not learn.—Newbern Journal of Commerce.

WASHINGTON, Dec 15, P. M.

The object of the bill increasing the number of the Judges of the Supreme Court is to keep the Circuits in perpetual session, with a view of maintaining better order in the South.

The Reconstruction Committee have concluded the examination of the Republican committee from Mississippi, who produced data and arguments to show frauds and irregularities at the recent Constitutional election. They want seven counties thrown out, which, they assert, would give a majority of three thousand in favor of the Constitution. No action by the Committee.

The Army expenditures for the last three years, commencing July 1865, are one hundred and ninety-five million whereof nearly one hundred millions were on account of liabilities incurred during the rebellion.

In urging action on the tariff, to-day, Schenck stated that to-morrow would be the last day for business before recess.

WORKING OUT AN ABSTRACTION.—In the preamble to Mr. Sumner's resolution, guaranteeing the right of every citizen of the United States to vote, without regard to color, he recites as follows:

"And whereas, further, it is expressly declared in the constitution that the United States shall guarantee to every State in the Union a republican form of government, and it is plain that inequality of rights is inconsistent with a republican form of government and the promises of the Declaration of Independence."

The Norfolk Virginian mentions as an illustration of the characteristic sagacity of the late Governor Tazewell, of Virginia, that he always maintained that the clause in the constitution alluded to by Sumner would ultimately be quoted to sustain federal assaults on the rights of the States.—The reply to this prophetic declaration of the great statesman and jurist was, that he was an "abstractionist;" and yet to-day we find his prediction verified to the letter!

SOUTHERN LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

PURELY A SOUTHERN INSTITUTION.

PRINCIPAL OFFICES:

Atlanta, Georgia; Memphis, Tennessee; Louisville, Kentucky.

CAPITAL STOCK, $228,500.

Nett Assets of the Company, July 1st, 1868, $220,942.66.

Insures lives, and promptly adjusts and pays losses. Its principal business is with Southern States, and to them it appeals for patronage. It has ample means to fully protect Policy holders and pay all losses.

The "Southern" combines the advantage of both note and cash system, stock and mutual—such as choose to pay cash may do so and secure a non-forfeitable policy and all the advantages of a Cash Company. The privilege of a permanent loan for one-third is granted to all who desire it.

It makes investments at home in good and reliable securities, thereby tending to make money more plenty in our midst, and to aid in developing the resources of our section, and to stop the annual drain of over Six Million dollars, which are being sent North for Life Insurance.

Its profits are equitably distributed among Policy holders and Stockholders.

In its organization are presented men of experience in Life Insurance, and their aim will be to make the "Southern Life" the exponent of the business, enterprise and progress of the present day.

THE FIRST LOVE.

BY GEO. WALTER SITES.

Here's to the eyes that enraptured my boyhood,
And roused the first passion I ever confessed;
Here's to the lips that translated their language,
And here's to the love that that language expressed!

I have met eyes that were brighter and bluer,
And revelled on lips that were lovely to-o-uth
But, of them all, none were sweeter or truer
Than those which enkindled the flame of my youth.

Love, the blind rascal, has fingered my heart-strings
And played on them tunes, yes, a dozen or more,
But never, woke music so wildly enchanting
As when he first wantoned the silver chords o'er

Time, with a coolness that's very considerable,
Has made in my breast an abundance of room,
Killed off like mushrooms, my later-day fancies,
And buried them all in oblivion's tomb.

But there is one ever gentle remembrance
The years have no power to wither or chill,
Deep in the core of my heart it is planted,
And there it will bloom over really still.

Here's to the eyes, then, that glamoured my boyhood,
And burnt the first hole in my immature breast;
Here's to the lips that first taught me love's lesson,
And here's to the darling whom first I caressed!

Winston, N. C., Dec. 9, 1868.

HOW HE MADE HIS MONEY.—The following conversation is reported as having taken place in the barber shop attached to one of our principal hotels, the other day:

First man and brother (reading a newspaper): I see dis Mr. Rosschilds, what jes died, was worth to' hundred million dollars.

Second man and brother (strapping a razor): Who?

First man and b.: Mr. Rosschilds.

Second do: How much was he worf, did you say?

First: Four hundred million dollars.

Second: Goshamighty! He mus' a had a good districk.

First: Good districk! What you mean?

Second: I mean good dis rick; dat's what I mean. I 'spose he was a whisky inspector; else how could he make so much money?—Washington Star

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

ANDREWS,

THE CLOTHIER,

ONE DOOR SOUTH OF TUCKER HALL,

Is the recognized leader of the Retail Clothing Trade in Raleigh.

Strangers in the City will find it to their advantage to call in and get a

WINTER OUTFIT.

THE REASON WHY:—Here is the LARGEST ASSORTMENT in Raleigh,

Here is the STYLE;

Here the "ONE PRICE" system is strictly adhered to;

Here are the LOWEST PRICES in the City;

He sells for CASH; therefore, high prices are not essential to success. The man who pays his money at this House contributes nothing towards paying bad debts made by others who "never mind the price."

Great pains taken in fitting the customer, and polite attention shown under all circumstances.
